

Jane Cabrera

Q: What did you want to be when you were a child?

A: A Detective (a P.I. like Jim Rockford, Magnum, Heart to heart... oh I could go on.) or an Artist. I was always drawing and making.

I used to have a gallery of my work (arranged beautifully on the 1960's patterned carpet) and I would charge my brother entry!

Q: What do you do as a hobby?

A: Printmaking

Q: What is your most treasured possession?

A: My children

Q: What strange habits do you have?

A: Couldn't possibly say!

Q: What's your favourite food?

A: Anything made of potatoes.

Q: Do you feel younger or older than your current age?

A: Usually ALOT younger but occasionally on bad days very old

Q: What is the best advice anyone has ever given you?

A: Do not learn to type or you'll end up as a secretary!

Q: What would you most like to change about yourself?

A: Better temper and more money.

Q: How long have you been a writer?

A: My first book came out 1996

Q: Where do you do your writing?

A: Everywhere

Q: What are the best and worst things about being an author?

A: I feel I'm always working, so its a seamless mix of practicalities and creating. I feel so fortunate to make a living from what I love.

I find switching from artist/illustrator/writer to Mum each day hard at times, especially when I'm really into my work.

Q: What book do you wish you had written?

A: Any by Dr Zuess

Q: What advice would you give to aspiring authors?

A: Don't make excuses for not getting on with it and learn to face rejection.

Always re-do your work until your totally satisfied-perhaps put it away for a couple of weeks and re-check it again, then.

Q: What were you like at school?

A: I was a bit invisible. I think apart from my art teacher I wouldn't be remembered. I found school boring.

I giggled a lot and was always day dreaming. I left school at 16 for Art College..far more exciting.
